

Marketing and Communication Consent Form

Ashbourne would like to communicate with your previous school and other related parties to inform them of your progress, final results and university destination as well as any testimonial you might be willing to share. After graduation we would also like your consent to keep in touch about developments and important events at the College.

Ashbourne has always and will always treat personal data with care and respect. It has never and will never use personal data for commercial purposes other than to promote its own courses and alumni network. Any of the communication above would be private and we would never publicise your achievements (on our website for example) without your explicit consent.

If students or staff have any queries about the notice or how the College processes their personal data, they can contact the Compliance Officer:
